

The BBB Educator program

Australia's most popular course on music learning and brain development is coming to Scotland!

The BBB Educator Course is designed for music educators, therapists, primary and early childhood educators to gain expertise and confidence in how music learning impacts on brain development. Participants will get two days of direct instruction from world renowned neuromusical educator, Dr Anita Collins.

9:30am	Registration
9:55am	Ask me anything
10:00am	Recapping the BBB Starter Course
10:20am	Music Learning and Language
11:20am	Music learning & Executive Function
12:40pm	Lunch
1:30pm	Music learning & Social/Emotional development
2:30pm	Spot the brain myth
2:45pm	Brain & Music development across childhood
3:15pm	Afternoon Tea/Coffee
4:15pm	Music as an advocacy tool - Using scientific research in advocacy
5:00pm	Ask me anything
5:30pm	Conclude

Pre-Course work

All participants will gain access to the BBB Starter Course which introduced the participants to the field of neuromusical research, the brief history of the field's development and the major findings to date. The course contains a 4 workshop videos (totally 1 hour of viewing) and answer 11 questions. This course should take between 1.5 and 2 hours to complete.

Book your FREE Ticket here

Glasgow
Monday 12 June 2023
Platform, 253 Argyle Street

Inverness
Wednesday 14 June 2023
Spectrum Centre, 1 Margaret Street